

INTRODUCTION TO THE SYDNEY LATIN AMERICAN FESTIVAL

Each year SLAFF delivers a dynamic selection of new release Latin American cinema to the people of Sydney. Using film, music, dance and food we take our audiences on a cultural journey across the diverse landscape of Latin America. Over the last 14 years SLAFF has built a robust Australian and International audience base.

SLAFF has established itself as a distinguished not-for-profit festival within the arts sector, building Sydney's community, cultural and social fabric. In addition, we continue to support grassroots development projects in Latin America.

With the support of our partners and collaborators, SLAFF is able to uphold its principle aim to support grassroots initiatives that strengthen communities across the region.

In the past 14 years, our Community Support Program has raised more than $128,000AUD.
